DAINIPPON SCREEN MFG. CO.,

1 motion to strike Creo's deposition notice and for a protective 2 order. Having considered the papers filed in support of and in 3 opposition to both motions, the court rules as follows:

4 1. Creo disclosed its expert after the deadline for doing
5 so, and even then has still failed to comply with Local Rule W.D.
6 Wash. CR 24(a)(2)(B), which requires that such disclosures "be 7 accompanied by a statement of all opinions to be expressed and the 8 basis and reasons therefor." Creo has had sufficient information 9 to produce such a disclosure for months; an extension of time to 10 provide adequate disclosure would affect the discovery cutoff date
11 and prejudice Screen. Screen's motion to strike and exclude 12 Mr. Yerkerwich's testimony [91-1] is GRANTED.

13 2. The court finds that Creo's deposition notice is over-
14 broad in the various ways that Screen suggests. The court de-
15 clines to detail the flaws in Creo's deposition notice; rewriting
16 the notice so as to properly narrow the areas of inquiry is Creo's 17 responsibility. The depositions shall take place in Japan unless 18 the requisite witnesses plan to travel to the United States.
19 Screen's motion to strike Creo's deposition notice [docket 98-1]
20 is GRANTED. Counsel are referred to the court's order of March 21 30, 1999, and Local Rule W.D. Wash. CR 37(h). The court expects
